BLUE RIBBON "INTERLOX" PUZZLES

GROUP C

PATENT OFFICE

MAY 17 1949

DESIGN DIVISION

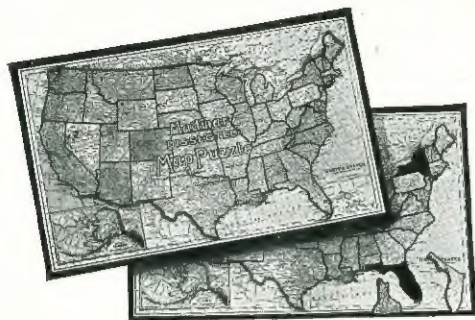

FOR OLDER CHILDREN and adults, we have a series of 500 different subjects. The Blue Ribbon name is used because of the excellence in material and manufacture as these puzzles are all made with three-ply veneered basswood of the highest possible grade, and with the best picture subjects. The puzzles are carefully jig-sawed with very fine saws into many intricate and fancy designs. The "Interlox" feature is that which pertains to sawing of the puzzle pieces in such a manner that each piece locks in with adjacent pieces so that as the puzzle is assembled, the assembled pieces are not jarred apart when an additional piece of puzzle is added.
